

Mason Hall Atrium Gallery

BREAKING NEW GROUND

a Survey Look at some of George Mason University's Architectural Projects

September 24 through December 16 2005

The Mason Hall Atrium Gallery is featuring a survey exhibition of architectural drawings and presentation boards spanning recent, current, and upcoming projects on the Fairfax and Prince William campuses. The following projects are included:

Aquatic and Fitness Center Addition
New fitness center and locker room addition
Construction Start - Fall 2005
Completion - Fall 2006
Architects - Cannon Design Group

Research I
Mason's first dedicated Research Building
Construction Completion - Spring 2006
Architects - Leo A Daly

Arlington Phase II
250,000 sq ft Academic Center
Construction Start - Summer 2006
Completion - Summer 2008
Architects - The Smith Group

College of Visual and Performing Arts
New home for the Department of Art

and Visual Technology
Construction Start - Fall 2006
Completion - Winter 2008
Architects - Ayers Saint Gross

Northeast Sector Development
Housing - Dining - Fitness - Retail
Construction Start - Fall 2005
Completion - Summer 2008
Architects - Hanbury Evans Wright Vlattas

Performing Arts Building Addition
New Entrance, Dance Studio and Music
Rehearsal Hall
Construction Start - Summer 2007
Completion - Summer 2008

Expansion and renovation of the Performing Arts Building serving the Dance, Music, and theater departments is made possible by a generous grant from Donald and Nancy de Laski

Prince William Community Performing Arts Center
Multi-Hall Venue for the Performing Arts
Construction Start - Fall 2006
Completion - Fall 2008
Architects - Holtzman Moss/ Hughes Group

Point of View - Institute for Conflict Analysis and Resolution
Design Ideas for the new Point of View Research and Conference Center

Patriot Center Renovation and Addition
Concourse, Office and Hospitality Room Upgrades
Construction Start - Summer 2006
Completion - Summer 2007
Architects - Moseley Architects